REMARKS

50X1-HUM

1. Personnel of the GROSSENHAIN (N 52/A 01) police school have been engaged in field exercises at the training grounds of KLEINRASCHUETZ (N 52/A 01) since 20 June 1949.
2. Small, armored tracked vehicles, with one driving sprocket and three idler wheels on each side, were used in the exercises. They were said to be of British origin. * The police trainees wore flat steel helmets.
3. Three "alert police" units occupied the same kaserne as the personnel of the police school.

* Comment: The tracked vehicles are believed to have been Bren Gun Carriers.
